The Tony Blair-supporting MP for Swansea East was elected in the Brynmor Jones electoral ward with 39.4% of the votes. Former Conservative candidate Scott Gilliland finished second with 31.7% and was elected in the Tannery ward. The decision comes days after a Mumbles MP, former Labour councillor Tonia Antoniazzi, resigned from the party following claims that she told supporters she was planning to vote for UKIP as a protest against the party's treatment of its gay members. She was subsequently suspended by the party. Francis Mallinder was elected in the Caerau ward in 2012 and received a total of 32.4%. The winner of the special election is expected to be announced in the coming weeks. Liberal Democrat candidate Rosie Brooke O'Farrell came third, with 19.6%. Mr Anderson said: "I'd like to thank the electorate of Brynmor Jones for their support in this election. "I am excited about the chance to serve the community and I am looking forward to
